

Know your Business Architecture Course Outline

Objectives

- Understand Business Architecture and its value proposition
- Understand various components of Business Architecture
- Understand where Business Architecture fits in various Architecture Frameworks
- Linking Business Architecture to Business Analysis & Enterprise Architecture
- Best Practices

Audience

- Professionals interested in defining Corporate Strategies & Process Improvements

Prerequisites

- None

Course Description

This course will introduce various components of Business Architecture and will help participants to justify the need for Business Architecture. It provides an overview of various architecture frameworks highlighting the areas of Business Architecture & provides guidance for choosing one that is suitable for your organization. Participants taking this course will be able to clearly distinguish Business Architecture from Business Analysis & Enterprise Architecture and the skill sets needed to perform Business Architecture. At the end of the course, participants will have a thorough knowledge of creating a Business Architecture model and will have the ability to drive corporate strategies that will lead to an efficient & successful organization.

Duration

2 Days

Agenda

Day 1

- What is Business Architecture
- Why Business Architecture
- Architecture Frameworks Overview
- Components of Business Architecture
 - Organization
 - Motivation
 - Business Domain
 - Process
 - Information Systems
- Define Business Architecture View
- Create an As-Is Business Architecture Model for an hypothetical Organization

Day 2

- Analyze As-Is Model using Value Chain & Competitive forces analysis
- Create To-Be Business Architecture model
- Best Practices